PREFACE

Late yesterday evening, I decided that when in Rome do as the Romans do and that the Membership website Vishista Advaita Sampradaya was unsustainable in the United Kingdom for it is totally off putting and should be left to personal outlook rather than a preaching procedure. Six months after it was created, it lacked Membership recruitment and I decided that I must give another six months of the facility as 'Conservative Libertarians (UK) simply as a Party, so deleted two of my blog posts and changed the name of the website at Join it accordingly. The new url is <https://app.joinit.com/o/conservative-libertarians/>.

This morning I made appropriate changes to the website of The Conservative Libertarian Society in what was previously TCLP-UK with the new Title and connection to the Membership website.

It remains to be seen what Stripe make of this, but the matter will go to Court if it raises objections.

Dear Stripe

My only objective is to ensure that the Medway County Court or the Central London County Court clears the way for my business activities for The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited as attached ToMedCtyCrt&CentLonCtyCrt(J00ME572&E35YM660_Any Proceedings outstanding)13Jan2025.docx.

Legal proceedings in the United Kingdom is a highly complex matter, I have learnt, for one has to be very cautious that one does not upset the Court authorities on what the might be considering.

When a litigant issues proceedings against elements of the State authorities as I have done, the same proceedings can be used by the Court to announce a Hearing that may be counter-productive from the Claimants point of view, unknown to the Claimant. I have to be prepared for all eventualities. This means that if the two Courts keep silent without a reply to the attached email, the State authorities would have to concoct some offences that it considers that I have committed and so I would have to be ready to consult a lawyer to Defend against that.

So long as I am living freely, my approach to life is to continue with the principles that are dear to me and as you know these are based on faith in God.

Above all I strive to make progress with my Business arrangements as facilitated by Stripe Bank and I do not dwell on what has happened in the past by way of the Original Offending Account at Stripe as I have managed to get round that issue with Stripe's approval.

I will not request Stripe for any further favours and am keen on developing my two Membership websites for as long as the money that I have at my disposal enables me so to do.

I am very transparent person as a religious attribute so always respond to authority, and I consider Stripe as one of the authorities to whom I am answerable to of necessity.

Yours sincerely

Comments:

We cannot get into the car with the key as it is an automatic lock and it seems that the car computer or its battery has gone awry. A mechanic is coming tomorrow morning at 8.45 am to diagnose what has gone wrong. With these modern cars, the car could have been tampered with remotely, I considered with the timing of the Slater Gordon email that the Company was told not to send to me anymore, so it was ignored and I had to ‘Unsubscribe’ this time.

Dear Sirs

We bought the Car in 2023 and had it regularly serviced at the local Fords Garage.

All cars sold by Fords to us over the past 40 years came with a guarantee that the battery would not give way before 5 years, and when we had it last serviced 6 months ago the battery was either not tested or if it was then the job done was pathetic.

Furthermore, the car that I reported (Ford Fiesta Ref EN69HNV) did not appear to have a manual override over the automatic key opening door system and so we were locked out of the car when the battery went flat all of a sudden over a day and half of having parked it in our garage.

When we bought the car no one explained to us how the manual door operating system that did obscurely exist worked so we had to call a car mechanic to open the door for us and use spark to the existing battery to start the engine and we had to pay the mechanic £20 for the services. He asked us to keep the car running and take it to a garage to have the battery tested, and this I did at the nearby Kwik Fit Garage which cost us £192 for a new battery.

Additionally, I spent £17.50 in taxi services to and from the Kwik Fit Garage.

As I wrote back to you there is nothing now to worry about as all is OK with the Car, but Ford should refund us the costs that we incurred (in total £230) immediately unless you can explain how it is that the battery failed on this occasion.

Yours sincerely

Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

REFERRAL FROM ALLEN MOTORS GROUP DEALERSHIP (Warren Hornigold)

Shantanu Panigrahi

From:shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com

Tue 14 Jan at 11:54

Dear Sirs

I do not appreciate it when Warren Hornigold passes the buck for what is clearly a Dealership issue to do with the marketing of a dodgy car in 2023 to my wife who is not a motor mechanic.

On top of that why did Mr Hornigold send me a ford focus information when the matter reported to UK Ford referred to Ford Fiesta purchased in the summer of 2023. If the Service Plan did not include servicing of the state of the battery that should have been made clear.

As already mentioned to you we have had Fords cars for 40 years and never has the treatment been so poor.

The email that I sent you clearly referred the Model Number of Ford Fiesta as EN69HNV registered in my wife's name as she is the main bread earner of the family.

The £230 demand that I made to Ford is non-negotiable and Slater and Gordon solicitors are well versed in car affairs. They should have taken this case over.

All in all although my knowledge of cars is poor, it is possible that the State authorities who have terrorised me for the past 26 years have tampered with the car during the process of trying to repair the car that this Ford Fiesta replaced in 2023 with excuses that they could not get parts after 4-5 weeks in order to force us to buy a new car. The correspondence that I have had with Slater and Gordon proves what I am alleging as attached: FrSlater&Gordon(NO NEWS IS GOOD NEWS_FordKentPoliceMedCtyCrt.docx).

I have waited and waited for my apology and £300 million in damages and compensation from the United Kingdom Treasury and still no Court under J00ME572 or E35YM660 is budging. All I get from every institution of the State is prevarication and terrorism of annoyance.

Yours sincerely
